

Press Release

September 21, 2010
Chennai, India

Kamna Prasad received the prestigious ‘Woman Super Achiever Award‘

Ms. Kamna Prasad, Head, Human Resources-Irevna received the prestigious ‘Woman Super Achiever Award‘ from the Asia Pacific HRM Congress 2010. The recognition endorses Irevna’s ongoing commitment to offer the best HR practices.

The Asia Pacific HRM Congress honors the best human resource professionals in Asia. The ‘Woman Super Achiever Award’ is the highest honor that it confers on a woman human resource professional. Leading professionals are evaluated on various parameters ranging from perception within the organization and externally, to key competencies such as strategic perspective, business goal management, team orientation, and people management.

Irevna is the world’s top-ranked research and analytical services offshoring firm with a global workforce of close to 1,400 analysts. Irevna has had the distinction of being rated the #1 Financial Services & Investment KPO Vendor for 2009 and three of the past four years by the Black Book of Outsourcing. The company offers a variety of services, from equity and credit research to corporate strategy support, actuarial services, and project finance. Irevna is a division of CRISIL, India’s leading ratings, research, risk and policy advisory company. For more information, visit www.irevna.com.